A large amount of LA's student body showed up to share the excitement at the 1981 Homecoming Assembly.

The Lobo band marched through the gym, and homecoming candidates paraded down the red carpet. Varsity yell and song both performed enthusiastically!

Coach Dave Selph introduced the LA football team. Some of the enthusiastic senior guys, dressed as Los Amigos cheerleaders, cheered for the crowd.

The highlight was when Coaches Bob Chambers and Dave Auxier, and history teacher Hal Roberts danced through the gym dressed as fairies, waving their wands and giving spirit to all.

We've got elegance!

'Puttin' on the Ritz' was this year's Homecoming theme. Though we lost 7-13 against Rancho, our team played an outstanding football game, by means of our strong defense.

During halftime the couples arrived in antique automobiles. Freshman Veronica Beltran was accompanied by Wes Lang. Sophomore Carie Gallagher was accompanied by Tim DeShong, and juniors Emily Canchola was accompanied by John Shook.

Senior princesses and prince were Patti Jean escorted by Donny Grable, Karen Keyser escorted by Raymond Barry and Patti Hoberg escorted by David Tromp.

The returning King and Queen, Steve Day and Becky Gonzales crowned the new King and Queen, John Ilkacala and Bridget Ponce.

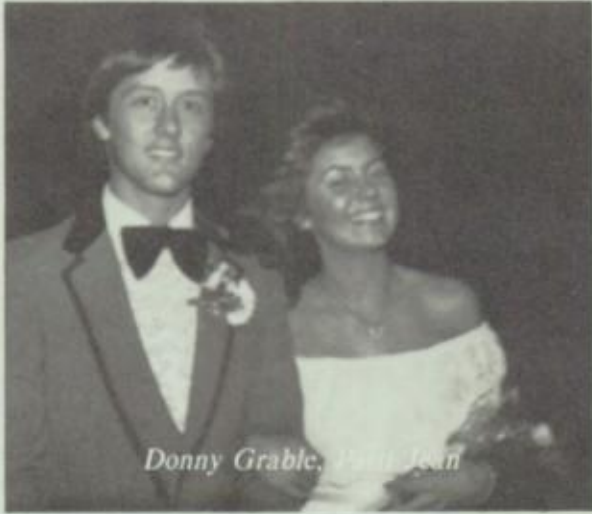

The balloon bubbles emerged out of an eight feet sparkling champagne glass erected to celebrate this crowning. An extravaganza of sky rockets glittered through the sky, brightening the blustery night.

Drama's 'Twelve Angry Jurors'

The cast of "Twelve Angry Jurors".

This year's first drama production given by the advanced drama class on Jan. 12 and 14 was "Twelve Angry Jurors".

This play took place on a very hot day in a jury room. The twelve jurors were having a very hard time deciding the guilt or innocence of a young boy who had been put on trial for the murder of an old man.

The cast included Jeff Jones as the Forman; Jurors 2-12 were Sandy Finney, Tom Murphy, Mindy DeBelle, Tammy Procter, Kathy Gray, Margaret Bernard, David Pratt, Barbara Guierrez, Cecilia Gonzales, Sharon Ammons, Julie Talluto, and Tony Ledesma was the guard. Mr. George Taylorson directed the play.

The 14th annual Coed was held at the Inn at the Park on January 16, 1982, with the theme of "Endless Love." Bids were done in a soft burgandy and pink to acknowledge the color theme for the Coed. A disc jockey provided the variety of music for this formal affair. For those who needed a refreshment between dances, an elegant sweet table and coke bar were provided.

Senior Dan Grable was crowned 1982 Coed King by returning King, Harold Wachter. Seniors Karen Keyser and Ken Sandbloom were voted 'Couple of the Evening' by guests. This festive evening, sponsored by Students' League, was a memorable occasion.

Seniors Win Spirit Week

Spirit week was the time of year when students got the chance to show their school spirit. Everyday of the week had a different theme and a large amount of the students participated in the activities.

Monday was Lobo hat, pin, and t-shirt day and everywhere one looked hats, pins, and t-shirts looked back. Tuesday was Lobo hobo day, Wednesday was 60's day, Thursday was toga day, and Friday was millionaire day. The teachers also participated in spirit week by putting on their Lobo t-shirts and showing their spirit.

Along with the students dressing up everyday, they also participated in a variety of class competitions during lunch, like the pie-eating contest and the doughnut catch.

Even though each class had a fair chance at all the competitions, the seniors dominated with 29 points, winning the Spirit Week Banner.

This year's crowning of King and Queen of Courts was followed by a great win over Rancho, 53 to 23. The returning King and Queen, Bill Viera and Bridgette Ponce gave their throne to Andy Tarango and Ana O'Cadiz.

The candidates were as follows: seniors Joe Shaver and Ana O'Cadiz, juniors Andy Tarango and Kathy Kiernan, sophomores Steve Hudson and Mary Johns, and freshmen Kenny Carlson and Monica VanHerpen.

The songleaders were great for building spirit at every game, win or lose. In the previous summer at the USA Camp in San Diego, they took many awards including the Spirit Stick. They also won many Superior ribbons.

The songleaders along with the cheerleaders helped build the morale of the football players after their loss of the CIF championship game against Mission Viejo. They kidnapped the players and took them out for donuts.

Many hours of work were sacrificed for Los Amigos by these girls. Their constant leadership at games kept the crowd cheering all year through.

They also performed at Dodger Stadium with the band in April and participated in the Strawberry Festival in May.

Foreign Clubs Celebrate

Spanish, French, German, and Vietnamese Clubs participated in a Christmas international dinner on Dec. 9, 1981. Each person made food from his own country, and everyone got to try everyone else's food.

After dinner, each club did a skit and sang Christmas carols in each club's respective language. At the end of the banquet, the Spanish club brought a pinata and everybody got candy.

According to some members, the banquet was successful and they hope to repeat it next year.

German Club was very active this year, being sponsored by Mrs. Emily Lamarre. Members sold Toffifay candy from West Germany to raise money for six students and Mrs. Lamarre to go to Camp Whittle, near Big Bear, April 23-25. In those three days they spoke only German and presented a German skit for the other German students.

The president of German Club, Maria Pfitzer, along with three other German III and 10 German II students, took the AATG test in January. The students in the top 90th percentile go to Germany as guests of the West German government.

The Vietnamese Club, sponsored by history teacher Steve Trotter, participated in several activities during the year. Besides sponsoring picnics at Mile Square Park, they participated in the International Dinner held in the Commons with the other foreign language clubs in December.

On January 25, the club celebrated Tet, which is similar to the Chinese New Year. This was celebrated at Santa Ana Valley High School with other Orange County Vietnamese. A Vietnamese dance troupe from Los Angeles danced in costume at the celebration also.

In May the club had an end-of-the-year banquet in the Commons to honor the senior graduates.

Does Anyone Speak French?

This year's French Club was the first ever for Los Amigos. Members met every Wednesday with their advisor, Miss Chris Tannous, to discuss their plans and projects which included a French candy sale, a car wash, and two bake sales.

The French Club also participated in the international dinner at Christmas, sponsored the film "The Tall Blond Man With One Black Shoe" in January, and sold flowers for Valentine's Day.

The Spanish Club returned to Los Amigos from an absence since 1970. Their purpose was to spread the Spanish culture around the school. They also learned about people and places of Spanish descent.

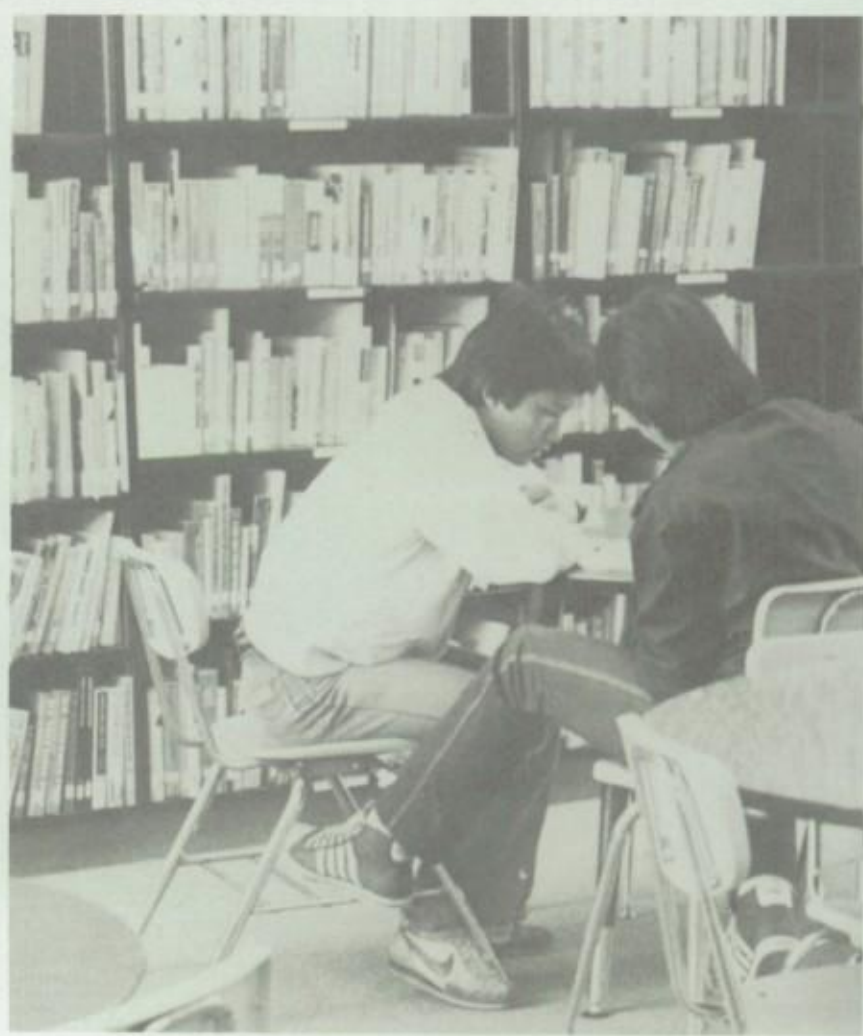

Their officers were President, Roberta Dolgin; Vice President, Annette Palomino; Secretary, Linda No; and Treasurer, Brian Baturevich. The Spanish Club met every two weeks with the advisor, Mr. Charles Donnelly. They had activities that revolved around the Spanish culture.

The club attended the International Christmas Banquet where they sang Christmas carols and enjoyed international foods. The Spanish Club's other activities included a visit to Mexico for a day and a trip to Olvera Street in Los Angeles. They attended Spanish Camp April 16, 17 and 18.

Efficiently Together

Colleen Delaney and Mark Baxter enjoy a good day's reading.

Once a month, numerous copies of the Paw Prints were seen circulating around campus in the hands of interested readers, gossipers, and other students wanting to know about the latest news.

Producing a newspaper was more work than met the eye. The most important ingredient of a newspaper was the articles. The work was not finished when the story was written. The stories were typed and copy read. From there they went to the printer to be made into a proof. The copy then came back to the staff where it was proofread.

The day before the papers were distributed, the page editors and editor-in-chief, Paul Hoover, went to The Composing Room in Costa Mesa to paste the stories, pictures, and ads on the boards. It was then printed in Glendale and distributed on Thursdays.

Newspaper students wallow in their perfection.

Reflector Staff Starts

Reflector staff at Chuck E. Cheese Good Time Theatre.

The Reflector was designed by 30 creative-minds and dedicated working people. The staff put in many hours of ordering pictures, making lay-outs, writing copy and thinking of headlines. Everyone felt the stress of making sure his page was perfect. It was pretty hard for the first-time staffers to meet the nerve-racking deadlines, which came approximately every four weeks. More than half of the staff were rookies and therefore they had to learn everything about the book's production as the staff met the first deadline. After a couple of deadlines, most members of the staff started to get the hang of things.

This year, Mrs. Carol Strauss was again the class advisor. Rory Ratliff and Linda Young were co-editors of the Reflector; this was the first time the yearbook staff had co-editors. Mrs. Strauss had the biggest job of all. When things were getting out of hand, she managed to keep the staff in line. She also made sure everyone was to keep busy and not just bum around! She also showed recognition to everyone on a job well done. Ratliff and Young, seniors, have been on the yearbook staff for 3 years. They worked hard to assign pages, work on the theme and decided on the color and cover.

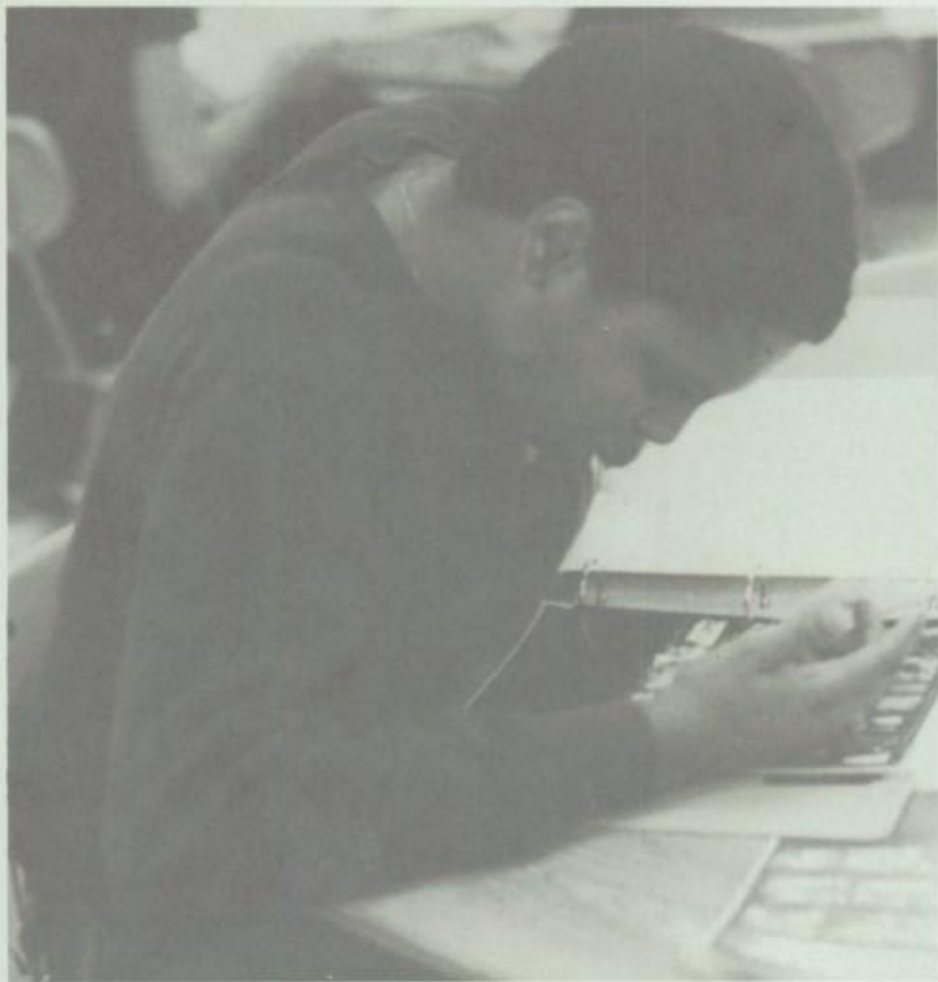

Last year, Ratliff and Young, and other new and second year members went to a spring conference held by Josten's Yearbook Company. Many members learned new ideas and methods to improve the yearbook.

The photographers had a big part in putting the yearbook together. There was never a sluggish moment between those who needed the pictures and those who took them. There were many disagreements but in the outcome, gratifying accomplishments were made.

Band members perform at many assemblies.

The L.A. Marching Band, which consisted of 50 musicians, was very proud to back the football team. They performed in half time shows during the season.

In order to get ready for the half time shows, they practiced marching through the neighborhood streets at 7 a.m. The band learned new songs and formations for each show.

The band also played for most of the assemblies to get everyone excited for the coming events.

Our band traveled many places and performed in many parades, including the West Covina Christmas Parade, and also the Strawberry Festival in Garden Grove in May. Also in the spring they were invited to march for a pre-game show for the L.A. Dodgers.

L.A. Sailors Show Super Sailing

All Aboard! This year's Sailing Club had discovered many exciting adventures on the high seas as they continued to sail into their third year at Los Amigos. The club consisted of two seniors, three juniors, five sophomores, and two freshmen. Every member of this club was given a written test. Apparently they seemed to have no real problems because each member of the club passed the test successfully. This active club was also involved in competitions such as the Regatta Race at Newport Beach. The club members usually met at the Sea Scout Base in Newport Harbor.

Los Amigos Ski Club has gone on several exciting trips to the powered slopes of Utah and Southern California.

The skiing Lobos have gone gliding down the glistening snow-laden slopes on their National Explorer Winter Festival. They stayed four days and nights at the new Salt Lake City Marriot Hotel. They skied on slopes like Snow Bird, Alta, Solitude, and Park City. There were races and even a Barb-B-Que in the snow. In addition, several showings of feature movies and dances were provided.

Enthusiastic Boosters

The 1981-82 Athletic Booster Club was one of the most active in Orange County. There were approximately 204 members, with 35-45 active members. The boosters officers were Gary Bergthold, president; Al Gagne, first vice-president; Ed Cortez, second vice-president; Louisa Gutierrez, third vice-president; Loretta Coffman, secretary; and Elaine Polichetti, treasurer.

The chair persons included Linda Charbonneau, publicity; Carolee Knapp, telephone; Connie Wells, hospitality; and Shelly Kissinger, jackets. All these parents dedicated their time to help make Los Amigos a better school.

The Booster Club was always busy with some program to raise money. The Athletic Booster Club raised funds through 50/50 drawings, paper drives, the pancake breakfast, membership drives, and the art auction. The two major fund raisers were the selling of the football and basketball programs and the concession stand. The Wolf Trap.

The Booster Club ran The Wolf Trap snack bar on the school campus. Nancy Bohannon volunteered many hours to run the food stand.

The athletic boosters provided Los Amigos with many improvements. They bought new weights for the weight program, head phones for football, and an audiometer for the nurse's office. They also purchased two display cases for the Lobo trophies, reconstructed the kiosk, and bought a cart for carrying high-jump pads.

A Booster Club member can be easily recognized by his orange jacket, black cowboy hat, and his outstanding spirit. Los Amigos' Athletic Booster Club helped LA by getting involved, showing spirit, and improving our school.

Show Support

The 1981-82 Band Booster Club did a lot for the Los Amigos Band. The Boosters worked at the concession stands at football games and made over $1,000. Other fund-raising projects paid for two drums, music and instrument repairs. At parades and games the Boosters provided water and cookies and helped prepare the band for performances.

Activities director Bill Brady asks, "Who, me?"

The ASB cabinet consisted of Tony Blakemore, president; Eddie Ortega, vice-president; Heide Phillips, treasurer, and Beth Stehmeyer, secretary. The members were very active in planning activities and helping our school.

The 1981-82 ASB sponsored many fun events for Los Amigos. They sponsored the car rally, noontime volleyball tournaments, pajama day, 50's and Sadie Hawkins dances, the firework show during half-time at Homecoming and movies in the Little Theatre.

Among their many activities included King and Queen of Courts Dance, the canned food drive and all the class competitions during lunch, such as the ice slide.

The ASB raised their money through all these events. The money they raised went to support our school.

California Scholarship Federation was one of the largest clubs on Los Amigos campus this year. During the first semester CSF had 70 qualified memberships and 17 sealbearers. In order for a person to be sealbearer, one had to be in CSF for at least 5 semesters including one semester during his senior year.

CSF was involved in a fundraising car rally on December 5. They also sold candies in January. Then on February 19, there was a CSF night at Disneyland.

This year the club had Mrs. Jeanette Morin as their new club advisor. This was Mrs. Morin's first year as a CSF advisor.

Their Choices And Styles

Choosing a wardrobe this year was a little like being 8 years old and being let loose at an ice cream counter because there were so many different choices.

Skirts and dresses ranged from short to long. Plaid skirts, ruffled blouses, and blazers were the "in" thing. Guys wore Polo and Izod shirts, pullover sweaters, argyle socks, Members Only jackets, and ties. Knickers, mini skirts, designer jeans, pullover sweaters, and Izod shirts were among the many fashions worn by Los Amigos girls.

Topsiders, penny loafers, Vans, and metallic shoes were some of the popular shoestyles at L.A.

Spring brought in the sailor look and it made a big splash at L.A. Sailor pants, shirts, and skirts were a big hit. Bermuda shorts, skirts, and sundresses were also some of the spring fashions.

Spring Fashions for guys were bermuda shorts, OP shorts, Polo and Izod shirts, plaid and striped shirts and shorts, Stubbies, and Levi 501 jeans.

'82 Lobo Attractions

Everyone had his/her favorite place to go, either after school or on the week-ends. During the football season everyone at L.A. was out cheering his team to victory and then continuing the celebration in the school parking lot. This year's hottest place after the parking lot was the Pizza chalet. Crowds and crowds of Lobo fans were found in and outside the Pizza Chalet.

Among some of the favorite Lobo eating furrows were Naugles and Carl's Jr. Tons of cups from Naugles and Carl's could be found in hands all around the campus during lunch.

This year many old and new alike took up skiing during the season. Talks and dreams of a trip to Big Bear or Mammoth could be heard all over. Even the day after Co-ed, many students were out hitting the slopes.

Arcades were the places this year to hit during the weekend. Pac-man and the deluxe astroids were just a few games being sought by eager Lobos.

Many students from Los Amigos who literally lived inside their cars found it most entertaining to drive up and down Whittier Blvd. just to waste gas and show off their cars.

Other students however, found their entertainment by dancing up at the Infinity, a young adult night-club, roller skating at the Fountain Valley Skating Center, racing at Malibu Grand Prix, messing around at South Coast Plaza Mall, or just by taking a nice drive to the beach.

Sara Kesser, Paulette Carder and Becky Tomlinson enjoy their lunch at Naugles.

This year the parking lot was jammed with cars of all sizes, colors, and styles. They varied from Toyota 4x4's, Mustangs, to California Bugs. Many of these cars were paid for by hard-working students, not to mention the hard-working parents who helped. However, not all of the cars were paid for by the students; a few of the cars were given away by generous parents and grandparents.

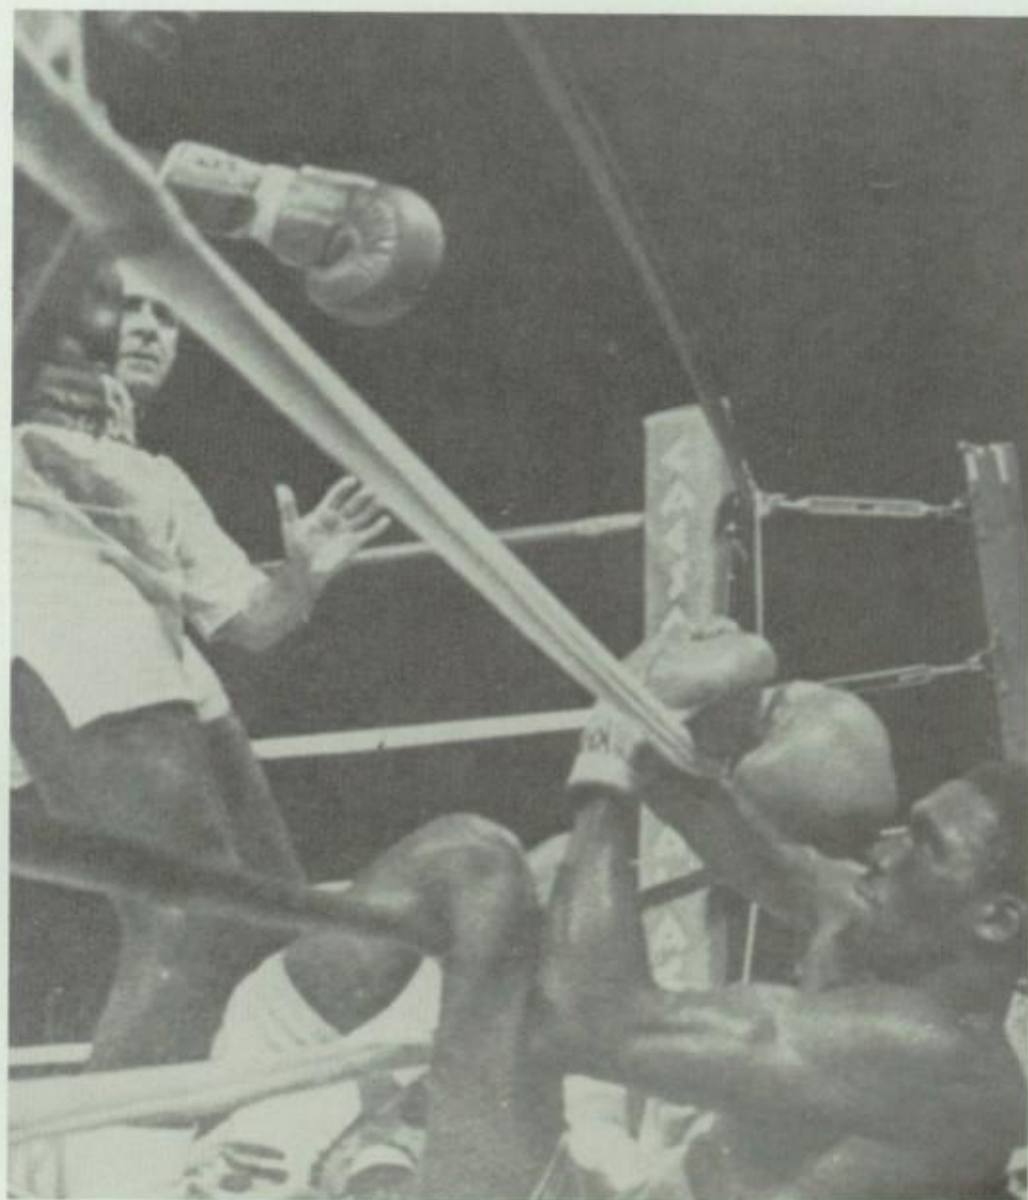

By 8 a.m. all the parking spaces were occupied in the student parking lot. Not until the lunch bell rang did the cars finally start diminishing. At that time the cars were cram-packed with hungry, impatient students waiting to eat.

This year only the seniors, and the underclassmen who lived only two blocks away, had the privilege of leaving the campus at lunch. However, a few lucky underclassmen were able to make it through the iron curtain, guarded by Mr. Leonard and Mr. Schiesel.

Other popular shows were "Too Close For Comfort", "Magnum P.I.", "Falcon Crest", "The Fall Guy," "Strike Force," "Today's FBI", "The Two of Us", and "Hill Street Blues", which had 21 Emmy nominations and eight wins, both record breakers for a continuing series.

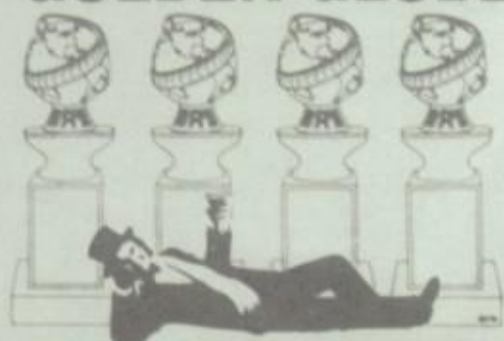

NBC dedicated a week of prime-time programming to turning young people away from drugs. That same network recognized the international year of the disabled with telefilms like: "The Acorn People" and "Skyward I and II", and specials like "Donahue for Kids". Other telefilms were "Long Journey Back" and "Run, Don't Walk".

Other happenings were the retiring of Walter Cronkite after 19 years, and "Tomorrow" became yesterday's late-talk show when NBC replaced Tom Snyder with comic David Letterman.

Many blockbuster movies came to the theaters this year, more than usual. Some of this year's top-rated movies were "Stripes", "Arthur", which won four Golden Globe awards and came to the Little Theater for fans to watch, "For Your Eyes Only", "Quest for Fire", "Excalibur", "Red", "Taps", and "Raiders of the Lost Ark", which to date was the fifth top grossing film of all time.

Lobo movie-goers also went to see, "Superman II", "The Howling", "Making Love", "Prince of the City", "Tarzan, The Ape Man", "On Golden Pond", "Halloween II", "Modern Problems", "History of the World-Part I", "Personal Best", "Body Heat", "Friday the 13th II", and the seven times academy nominated "Chariots of Fire."

Some movies, however, were not watched by many Lobos. Among them were "Pennies From Heaven", "Wolfen", "Zorro, the Gay Blade", "The Great Muppet Caper", "Endless Love", "The Legend of the Lone Ranger", and "Venom". These were considered to be the "flops" of the year.

Clockwise from top; "Arthur", "Raiders", "Taps".

Work Experience And

"Education goes beyond textbooks and school rooms," says, work experience advisor, Mr. Jim Silva. Los Amigos students not only got class credits for working, but they also received valuable working experience as well.

Work experience students worked in a wide variety of vocational occupations, ranging from physical therapists to auto mechanics. This year there were 50 enrolled in the work experience program.

Along with students having to work for their credits, Mr. Jim Silva also held mandatory meetings every Monday or Tuesday. In each meeting he brought to the attention of the students a variety of laws and techniques used in the working world.

L.A. Lobos Take

The Lobo Varsity football team of 1981 was known as non-traditionalists. The team consisted of 49 players. All of these "hunks" worked together to make up CIF finalists.

The Lobos had never been this far before in CIF. On the crisp evening of December 4th, 1981 at the Capo Valley's home field, the Lobos defeated Capo Valley in the CIF semi-finals in an exciting triple overtime, 22-16. This was a sight to behold. The fans chanted "We Believe" and the team gave them something to believe in. We came back to be defeated in the finals by Mission Viejo 35-0 leaving our record 9-5.

The season closed with more pride and togetherness than Los Amigos had ever shared.

The 1981 boys' freshman football team had an outstanding season with a League record 3-2. The young Lobos pulled through with a 2nd place win in the Garden Grove League. The team spent many hard hours practicing and it paid off by their excellent ranking in league.

The coaches Doug Mercer, Famous Hooks, and Darryle Beal took the time to make the freshman team a good one. The boys had practice everyday and coaches were always there to help.

The games were always attracting attention, with many of Los Amigos students attending both home and away games.

The varsity volleyball team was led by new coach Kim Pickering. With the guidance of the new coach, the team did well at pre-season La Canada and Los Amigos tournaments.

In league play the record was 8 wins and 2 losses which placed them second in the Garden Grove League. Because of this they were allowed to advance to C.I.F. playoffs, losing to Tustin High School in the first round.

Individual members received numerous awards by the season's end. Sophomore Heather Mackey and freshman Lisa Manfree were selected to second team, all league. Captain Trina Tromblay, junior, was chosen to the first team, all league.

Individual honors were awarded at the sports banquet potluck held Nov. 30 in the Commons. Heather Mackey received best offensive player, Lisa Manfree, best defensive player; best server was awarded to Trina Tromblay. Alison Ohler was given the coach's award for hard work and Donna Galm received the most improved player award. The most outstanding player award went to Bridget Ponce.

7-3 League Record

Karen Glinskas and Cecelia Altamirano

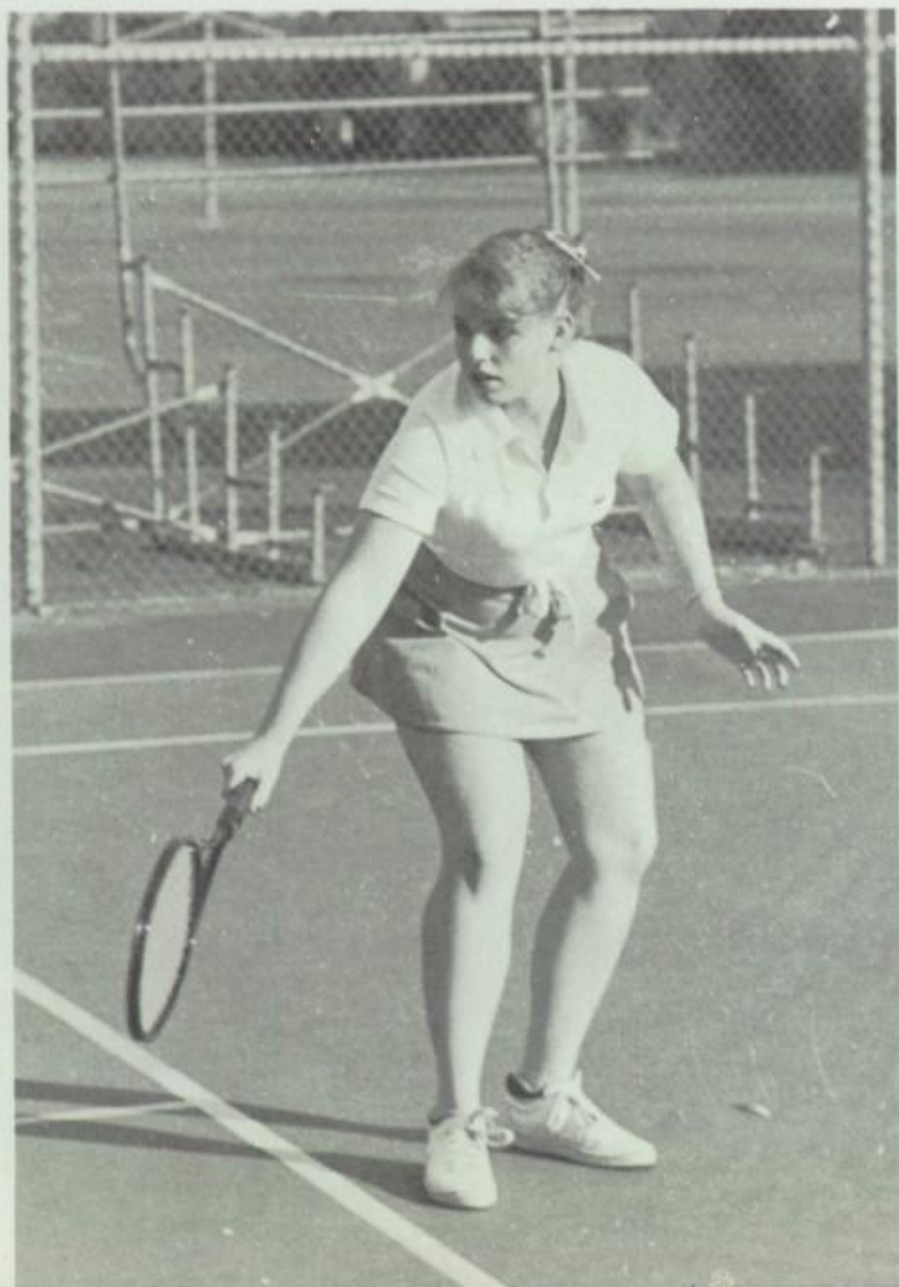

The girls' varsity tennis team, with a lot of hard work and determination, finished with a league record of 7-3, tying for second place with Garden Grove.

With Mrs. Millie Hay as the new coach this year, the girls put in a lot of hard work after school.

Along with placing second in league, the team has seven all league players: Cecelia Altamirano, Karen Glinskas, Ailene Kambe, Bobbi Kinney, Cindy Lechner, Danette Tisnerat and Cris Toron.

Cris Toron went undefeated in league play and in C.I.F. and advanced to the second round before being defeated. Bobbi Kinney and Danette Tisnerat as a doubles team advanced to the second round of C.I.F. before being defeated.

This year the team chose Cris Toron as M.V.P., Danette Tisnerat as most inspirational, and Dawn Phillips as their captain. These awards were given at the awards banquet held in the Commons on Dec. 8.

Girls' cross country won league and went undefeated 6-0 with the help of Captains Kathy Kiernan and Brenda Bohannan. The team went into CIF finals, taking fifth place.

This year's team consisted of three seniors, five juniors and six sophomores. The top runners were Kathy Kiernan, Sandy Springer, Michelle Stevenson and Kelly Brown, all of whom made all-league.

Kiernan took first in the Bishop Amat, Millikan, Corona del Mar and the Orange County Invitationals. She was the Garden Grove League's Most Valuable Player. She was selected to the All Orange County Junior First Team and also placed third in CIF finals.

Springer took fifth in the Orange Invitational and was selected to the All Orange County Junior Third Team. She took ninth in CIF prelims.

This year the varsity softball team was made up of many talented individuals. There were nine returning varsity players from last year's squad. Five of these players were members of the league championship team of 1980. Coach Lee Lanan led this team in one of the toughest sports in the Garden Grove League. They competed in the 4A section of CIF, which is made-up of the toughest teams. At the beginning of the season there was a lot of rainy weather. Due to these conditions many of their games were cancelled. They had to have many practice sessions on the black top because of the muddy condition of the fields.

Karen Carlson and Lisa Manfree were 1982's softball pitchers with Heather Mackey as short stop and Maria Pfitzer as catcher. Peggy Hoelderlin and Dorine Makoutz alternated guarding first base while Bridget Ponce and Roni Ramirez were stationed on second and third base, respectively. The field was watched by Nancy Churchill with Rhonda Reed on right field, Maureen Sweeney at center field and Danette Tisnerat on left field.

Mock Trial, Sacramento Bound

January 13, 1982, is a day that will go down in Los Amigos history because the Lobos took first place in the first annual Orange County mock trial competition held in the Orange County Superior Court.

With Judge Robert E. Rickles presiding, Los Amigos and El Modena presented both sides in the finals of a case concerning the innocence of two men accused of assault and battery on a young man and the theft of his girlfriend's purse. Los Amigos was the defense.

The 14 members of the team were John Aihara, Mike Atkinson, Bob Gnewuch, Steve Haefner, Kimberly Harrington, Kevin Hayashida, Meri Huth, Leisa Litteral, Joe Lum, Joni Ong, Hien Tang, Anne Wahi, Julie Yamamoto, and Craig Young.

Advisor Jim Silva, Coach Franz Miller from the Public Defender's Office and Dr. Scotty McTaggart flew to Sacramento with the team to compete in the state finals on Feb. 16-18. While in Sacramento, all of these members met with Gov. Jerry Brown for commendations.

Mike Atkinson pointing out the facts of the case.

Barb,
Hi, you are a great costar & friend.
I hope you have a wonderful summer and hopefull
you David Pratt

As a tree grows, so shall I.
And like the tree I flourish with each new encounter and experience.
I learn in different ways, and each new way broadens my spectrum of learning experiences.
I may gain or I may lose.
I may stumble or I may progress.
But whatever course I take
I shall take it with the realization that knowledge is my reward.
By this growth, I become a fuller more aware being.
And in the end, I can look back on the enlightenment I have gained and call this path I've taken my learning tree.

LOS AMIGOS

*It seems to me a crime that we should age.
These fragile times should never slip us by.
A time we never can or shall erase as friends together watching our childhood fly.*

*The tide rushes in and covers our footprints, leaving the sand fresh for another adventure.
Our lives are like the sand.
People journey through our minds and leave their footprints, but then the tide rushes in.*

*In a world of wars,
of pollution,
of violence,
of corruption,
of prejudice,
of hatred,
of murder,
of prisons,
of pressures,
of sadness,
and of hypocrisy, there are also friends, and smiles,
and sincerity,
and happiness,
and brief moments of even love.*

Los Amigos Lobos

After returning members and the advisor instructed new yearbook members while the first deadline was in progress, deadlines and assorted problems were met, and seven short months later, the REFLECTOR has finally been created.

Staff members put many long hours and hard work into this yearbook. Most of all they put themselves as a whole into their work, SEEKING TO FIND the proper pictures, layouts and headlines for each individual page. They should be complimented for their enthusiasm and devotedness toward the 1982 REFLECTOR.

Special thanks goes to Roberts Studio for special help, and Mr. Doug (Hoot) Gibson, our yearbook representative for his help with the color, cover, and division pages. When he wasn't in Mexico he was sometimes here helping the staff!

Extra special thanks to advisor Mrs. Carol Strauss for her patience, advice and confidence, without which we wouldn't have made it through the pressures, and we would have missed deadlines.

As the class of '82 leaves Los Amigos SEEKING TO FIND the treasures in life, look back and remember these years, for your memories are to be treasured ones.

Sincerely,

Linda Young Rory Ratliff

Barb
 I hope were still good friends next year. I really think we will. We've come along this far. Let's do some thing during summer, so we don't come back like strangers.
 Remember, I love ya lots.
 your good friend

Barb,
 Oh so happy that were as close as we are! Your friendship is extra special! Oh really gonna miss ya when I leave, but I'll keep in touch. Just think two more years & were set! Its scary but I hope you had a super sophomore year! Have a wonderful summer & call me any time before July!
